

COOKIE POLICY

Last Updated: May 2026

Take Capital for Traders ("we," "us," or "our") uses cookies and similar tracking technologies on our website (<https://www.takecapft.com>) to enhance your experience, monitor platform security, and improve our educational environment.

1. What are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files stored on your device when you visit our Website. They help us remember your preferences, understand how you use our platform, and secure your account.

2. Types of Cookies We Use

- Essential & Security Cookies: Necessary for the Website to function properly and securely. These cookies cannot be disabled. We use these specifically to monitor IP addresses and connection types (e.g., VPN/VPS usage) to enforce our Geographic Restrictions and prevent fraudulent account access.
- Analytical Cookies: Help us analyze how visitors interact with the Website, providing insights to improve our educational content and user experience.
- Functional Cookies: Enhance functionality and personalization, such as remembering your preferences or saving simulator settings.
- Marketing Cookies (Optional): Used to track visitors across websites for advertising purposes.

3. Cookie Control

You can control cookies through your browser settings. If certain cookies are disabled, some parts of the platform may not function properly. To modify your settings, access your browser's "Privacy" or "Cookies" menu.
